Job Opportunity: Family Support Worker

Location: Williams Lake, BC (Urban Office)

Employment Type: Full-time

Salary: $32–$38/hour (based on experience)

Deadline to Apply: November 10, 2025

About Us

Tsideldel Family Services – Nexwesiqa Qa (“For Our Children”) provides a wide range of culturally grounded services that support families and youth. Our work is rooted in Tsilhqot’in values, healing, and connection, helping families strengthen relationships, access resources, and remain connected to culture—both in community and for members living away from home.

Position Overview

We are seeking a dedicated and compassionate Family Support Worker to join our Williams Lake office. This full-time role focuses on supporting families through direct assistance, advocacy, referrals, and culturally relevant workshops that promote family wellness and resilience.

Key Responsibilities

- Provide support and advocacy for families navigating life changes, separation, or transition
- Facilitate referrals to housing, education, mental health, and employment services
- Lead workshops and gatherings on parenting, communication, cultural parenting, and life skills
- Collaborate with schools, agencies, and community service providers to coordinate supports
- Maintain accurate records and contribute to individualized family or case planning
- Uphold confidentiality and represent Tsideldel Nexwesiqa Qa with professionalism and cultural integrity

Qualifications & Skills

- Diploma or degree in Social Work, Child & Youth Care, or a related human services field
- Experience working with Indigenous families and youth is an asset
- Knowledge of trauma-informed and culturally safe practices
- Strong communication, facilitation, and advocacy skills
- Commitment to living a healthy, positive lifestyle
- Valid driver’s license and ability to travel as needed

Preference will be given to those of Aboriginal Ancestry - per Section 16(1) of the Canadian Human Rights Act.

How to Apply
